Judy Daszkoski Becomes Mrs. Raymond Andicochea

Mrs. Raymond Andicochea, the former Judy Daszkoski, has returned from Kentucky where she spent her honeymoon, to resume her studies at El Camino College. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Daszkoski, 17004 S. Prairie Ave., was married to Raymond F. Andicochea at the El Nido First Baptist Church last month. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Andicochea, 4231 W. 177th St. Mr. Andicochea is serving with the United States Paratroopers in Kentucky.

For the wedding, the bride wore a gown of flocked white nylon over white taffeta, made by her mother. It was fashioned with a cowl neckline, long sleeves, fitted bodice and a full skirt made of tiers of the nylon. A pearl tiara held the short illusion veil and the bride carried white orchids and carnations. She was given in marriage by her father.

Hadassah to See Films of Israel Youth

South Bay Chapter of Hadassah will meet at 11 a.m., Tuesday, Feb. 5, in the Community Room of the American Savings and Loan Assn., 1959 Kingsdale Ave., South Bay Center. The public is invited to attend the program portion of the meeting which is scheduled to begin at 12:30 p.m.

Two sound movies will be shown. "And Still They Come" tells the story of the rehabilitation of the youth coming from various countries to make their homes in Israel and the part Hadassah's Youth Aliyah plays in this movement. "The Essence of It All" is a beautifully told story of the work being done in the new Hadassah Hospital in Israel.

Mrs. Max Stern is president of the chapter. Hostesses for the meeting will be Mmes David Rubin and Aaron Redkin.

was the maid of honor wearing green slipper satin and carrying green carnations. Bridesmaids were Misses Linda Andicochea, Linda Daszowski, Marsha Lamb and Jackie Daszowski. Their gowns were in the rainbow colors and each carried a matching bouquet.

Dennis Kern stood as best man and ushers were Richard Wagner, Richard Zook, Bill Capps and Laurence Andicochea.

Miss Melody Pisel, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Pat Lewis, soloist.

Rev. Leonard L. Pisel officiated at the vow exchange. A reception for the 200 guests was held at the church. Karen Dobbis was in charge of the bride's book.

The newlyweds are both graduates of North High School. The bride will complete her cosmetology course at El Camino in June and will then go to Kentucky to join her husband.

Form Club For Foreign Born Women

"World Fellowship in Action" is the objective of a new club offered at the YWCA. The Torrance YWCA has organized an International Club for all foreign born women. Any foreign born woman, interested in meeting other women from her country and other countries, is invited to the first meeting, Wednesday evening, Feb. 13, in the YWCA Building, 2320 W. Carson St., Torrance, from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

The group is being organized by Mmes Edwin Ballard, Peter Wood, Gordon Hendry and Paul Berch. The group will offer social activities, a chance to meet other women and programs from various countries. Any foreign born woman is welcome to join. Call the YWCA for additional information.

North High Homemaker Is Chosen

Dianna J. Dempster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dempster, was named North High School's Homemaker of Tomorrow in the 1963 Betty Crocker Contest.

Having achieved the highest score on the test, Dianna is now eligible for the title of state Homemaker of Tomorrow, according to Mrs. Harriet L. Christian, head of the homemaking department.

The state Homemaker of Tomorrow is awarded a $1,500 scholarship by General Mills. The school of each state Homemaker of Tomorrow is awarded a complete set of Encyclopedia Britannica.

If Dianna becomes State Homemaker of Tomorrow, she will be accompanied by her advisor, on an expense-paid tour of New York City, Washington, D.C., and Williamsburg, Va., next spring. During the tour, the 1963 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow will be named. She will receive a raise in her scholarship, bringing it to $5,000.
